Notes to Register of Interests

General

You should complete the register with sufficient detail to identify clearly what the interest is.

Do not use abbreviations, initials or acronyms.

You are personally responsible for the accuracy of the contents of the register.

You are in breach of the code if an interest is not registered with sufficient clarity.

Please mark "none" on the register if you have no interest to register in any category.

Your completed Register of Interests form will be published on our website for public viewing. However, if you feel you have an interest which, if disclosed on a public register, could lead to yourself or another person connected to you being subjected to violence or intimidation, then you must disclose this as a sensitive issue to the Monitoring Officer and need not declare on this form. You must discuss this matter with the Monitoring Officer in the first instance.

The following notes relate to the interests as numbered on the register.

Part 1 Disclosable Pecuniary Interests

The Localism Act 2011 created specific criminal offences in relation to the disclosure of pecuniary interests (Part 1 of this form). It is a criminal offence to –

- Fail to register a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest (DPI) within 28 days of election or re-election.
- To take part in the debate or vote at any meeting where you have a registered or unregistered DPI.
- Fail to declare at a meeting and/or to take part in the debate or vote, if you are aware you have a DPI which is not yet registered or notified to the Monitoring Officer.
- If you have declared an unregistered DPI at a meeting, to fail to register that within 28 days of that declaration.
- Provide false or misleading information in relation to any registration or to be reckless as to its accuracy.
- Take any steps or further action on matter in you have a DPI other than referring it elsewhere.

In each case without reasonable excuse, and you recognise any such failure is a direct contravention of the Localism Act 2011 and a criminal offence; and may be investigated by the Police and referred to the Director of Public Prosecutions. You understand that upon conviction a person may be fined up to a maximum of £5,000 and/or disqualified for a period of up to 5 years from being or becoming (by election) or otherwise) a Member or co-opted Member of any other relevant authority.

(A) (i) – (v)

You should include not only your interests but also the interests of your spouse or civil partner, a person with whom you are living as husband or wife or a person with whom you are living as if they were a civil partner, so far as you are aware of the interests of that person.

Include all employments, whether full or part time, identifying the nature of each employment by use of job title or trade, occupation or profession.

Include the name of the person or body employing you. If you are a director, give the name of the body or company appointing you. Include for all directorships.

(B)

Include the name of the political party, or other person or body that has made a payment to you for election expenses. Include the name of any person or body (other than the authority) making any payment to you for expenses incurred by you in carrying out your duties as a member (eg travelling expenses).

(C)

If you own shares or other form of equity in a company or other body which has a place of business within the authority's areas or owns land or property in the authority's area, you will need to consider whether the interest is to be included. Indentify the nominal value; this is the amount of the shares indicated on the certificate, not the market value. If this exceeds £25,000, you need to register the name of the company or body. If this is less that £25,000 but the holding is more than !% of the total issued share capital, you need to register the name of the company or body.

Beneficial interest includes freehold and leasehold (tenancy) interests and any legal rights you may have over property, for example a right of way or an option to purchase.

(F)

Include here any land or property leased (tenanted) from your authority by yourself, your firm or company, or body registered under 1 (c) above

(G)

This includes grazing agreements, allotments, garage licenses and other short term arrangements to use your authority's land or property.

Part 2 (a) – (e)

List all bodies (external to the Authority i.e. not committees or sub-committees of the authority) to which you have been appointed by the authority. Give the full name of the body (not initials or acronyms). Appointments or nominations may include local committees and charities, partnerships and companies in which the authority is involved and other related organisations. Include nominations to regional and national bodies such as local authority associations.

Include any public bodies of which you are a member (e.g. school governor, health authority, government agency, other non profit organisation in the public sector).
