

Saxilby Family Fun Day 2026: Pitch Categories and Pricing Overview

Saturday 22 August 2026 | 12pm – 5pm | Saxilby Public Recreation Ground

Saxilby Family Fun Day 2026 provides a range of pitch options to accommodate community groups, local traders, and food and drink vendors. This document offers a concise overview of the available pitch types and the associated fees. It is intended as a quick reference to assist hirers in selecting the most appropriate pitch for their needs.

Full terms and conditions, including health, safety, and operational requirements, are provided separately.

I. Standard Pitches

Pitch size: 4m x 4m (for additional space, please book multiple pitches)

Pitch type	Aimed at	Examples / Clarification	Price per pitch
Community Groups and Charities	Local voluntary groups and not-for-profit organisations whose primary purpose is community benefit rather than commercial gain	Parish groups, PTAs, youth organisations, sports clubs, fundraising stalls for registered charities. May include small-scale fundraising activities	£15
Local Traders, Makers, and Social Enterprises	Independent businesses and individuals primarily selling their own products or services, particularly those based locally or operating on a small scale	Crafters, artists, handmade goods, small local service providers, ethical/social enterprises. Locally operated franchises offering hands-on activities (not primarily promotional) may fall within this category	£30
Commercial and Promotional Businesses	Regional or national businesses, franchise brands, or traders primarily selling third-party products or operating structured sales models. May also include businesses attending primarily for brand visibility or customer recruitment	Multi-level marketing (MLM) representatives, nationally recognised retail brands, franchise operators, businesses selling mass-produced or branded goods not made by the stallholder, promotional brand-led stalls	£60

Important:

- Any stall primarily selling food or drink for consumption (including cake stalls) must apply under Food & Drink Vendor categories.
- The organisers reserve the right to review and confirm category allocation where activities do not clearly fall within one category.

Standard pitches should be booked through our Ticketsource site, and are available on a first-come, first-served basis:

2. Food & Drink Vendors

Food and drink pitch pricing is tiered to reflect menu pricing, scale of operation, and turnover potential, ensuring affordability and a balanced offer.

Tier	Aimed at	Typical profile	Pitch fee
Tier 1: Snack and Small Traders	Very small-scale vendors with limited menus and low price points	Home bakers selling cupcakes/brownies, small drinks stands, simple stalls. No substantial hot meal offering. Must fit within a standard 4m x 4m footprint (additional space charged at £30 per additional 4m x 4m equivalent)	£30
Tier 2: Family Value Traders	Vendors targeting families and children with accessible pricing	Ice-cream vans, children's hot food, simple street food. At least one main item £5 or under, and no main item above £9	£70
Tier 3: Standard Traders	Most mainstream hot food with dessert traders with mid-range pricing	Burgers, pizza, loaded fries, wraps, crepes, waffles. Lowest priced item typically £6-£7, with at least one main item under £8	£100
Tier 4: Premium and Specialist Traders	Higher-end, gourmet, artisan, or niche traders with premium pricing	Specialist street food concepts, artisan or gourmet offerings, typically with main items £9+	£130

Food & Drink Categories (for variety only)

- Hot savoury meals (Burgers, wraps, pizza, loaded fries)
- Kid-focused food (Chicken nuggets, mini pancakes, hot dogs)
