Committee Terms of Reference

1.0 Introduction

- 1.1 Parish councils can delegate functions and decisions to a committee, sub-committee, officer or another local authority, but not to individual councillors. Councils have legal powers to undertake certain activities and decisions that are made are required to be within the boundaries of these powers.
- 1.2 Any delegation to a committee, sub-committee or officer should identify the nature and extent of the responsibility or decision making. A parish council can arrange for the discharge of part, or all, of their functions (except in respect of levying the precept) to committees, sub-committees, and officers. Such arrangements require certain decisions to be referred to, or made by, full council.ⁱ
- 1.3 The terms of reference have been approved by full council. If a sub-committee/working group is appointed, the parent committee can determine the terms of reference for the sub-committee/working group. However, it cannot confer responsibilities that are not within the committee's terms of reference.ⁱⁱ
- 1.4 The terms of reference set out the parameters within which the authority has delegated to committees, sub-committees/working groups, and officers.
- 1.5 It is good practice that terms of reference are made available to councillors and the public. These are available on the council's website. Clear terms of reference provide assurance to the public that the council is operating in a transparent manner and within an appropriate governance framework.
- 1.6 The membership of each committee is established at the annual full council meeting, with councillors putting forward which committees they would like to sit on. Any requested variances to this committee membership must be agreed at full council. Any new councillors who join the council part-way through the administrative year must request membership of specific committee(s), with this to be agreed at full council.
- 1.7 A minimum of five members should sit on a committee, to ensure that it can always be quorate (there must be three members in attendance for it to be quorate). A maximum of eight members will be set for a committee, otherwise it can become cumbersome and ineffective if most of the council are sitting on it. Where there are more nominations for committee membership than seats available it is advisable for councillor's skills and experience to be taken into consideration initially, with a ballot to take place if required. (under Standing order 10L).
- 1.8 Chair and vice-chairs of committees should undertake training in relation to the role i.e. in management of council meetings. This is usually via a Lincolnshire Association of Local Council's course.

I.9 Procedural items that apply to all committees/groups

- Agree a chair and vice-chair.
- To approve the notes of the previous meeting as minutes.
- A minimum of five members and a maximum of eight members should sit on a committee/group, to ensure that it can always be quorate (there must be three members in attendance for it to be quorate).
- For members to be aware of, and work within council policies and procedures, including the volunteer policy, media and social media policy, standing orders, and the civility and respect pledge.

2.0 Finance and Risk Committee

2.1 Purpose

Oversee and advise full council on matters relating to financial and risk management and to enhance Saxilby with Ingleby's resilience and ensure our community is prepared for potential emergencies.

2.2 Objectives

- a. Recommend to full council by December, an annual council budget, based on the draft budget prepared by the Responsible Financial Officer.
- b. Recommend to full council an annual precept.
- c. Review the annual accounts of the council in preparation for their annual external audit.
